

[The remainder of the page is almost entirely obscured by heavy black redaction bars and horizontal lines, making the text illegible.]

- 1.6 "Ordinances" means statements in writing published by the Council relating to matters referred to in the Charter or the Statutes or relating to the work of the University.
- 1.7 "Policies and Procedures" written policies and procedures first approved by Council under Statute 2 paragraph 4.1 and subsequently as revised, amended or replaced by Council from time to time in accordance with Statute 2 paragraphs 4.2 and 4.3.
- 1.8 "Regulations" means statements in writing published by the Senate governing the academic work of the University.
- 1.9 Meanings shall be interpreted in such manner as not to conflict with the Charter.

STATUTE 2 - ACADEMIC STAFF

1. This Statute shall apply to all Academic Staff.
 2. This Statute shall override any provision in any contract, term or condition of
-

University Policies and Procedures are established that cover the following areas of employment and which shall apply to all employees, including:

[REDACTED]

6. Appeals

6.1 In the case of an appeal against the dismissal of a member of Academic Staff for reasons other than redundancy, an Appeal Panel shall be established and shall consist of at least three members, including a chair being a member of Council not being a person employed by the University; at least one other member of Council not being a person employed by the University; and at least one member of the Academic Staff nominated by the Senate.

6.2 In the case of dismissal of a member of Academic Staff for reasons other than redundancy, the Appeal Panel shall be established and shall consist of at least three members, including a chair being a member of Council not being a person employed by the University; at least one other member of Council not being a person employed by the University; and at least one member of the Academic Staff nominated by the Senate.